Sales Representative – Turf Fertilizer and Control Chemicals

AmeriTurf, a distributor of innovative turfgrass care products, is expanding our employee sales team in the municipal, education, and other public entities markets in the greater Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The successful candidate for this position will build relationships, and generate sales through recommending agronomic solutions that provide benefit to the customer with the industry's best fertilizers, herbicides, pesticides and fungicides.

You will be backed by best-in-class sales support, logistics and guidance from agronomic experts with many years of experience in the turfgrass market.

Prior professional sales experience is preferred, but not required. You will be provided training.

Ultimately, your income will depend on your success in sales. The position includes health insurance, as well as paid holidays and vacation.
